LOSS Team Training

A LOSS Team is made up of trained volunteers, primarily suicide loss survivors who provide practical support and connection to resources after a suicide. Their response provides an instillation of hope because team members may have experienced a similar loss .

A LOSS Team is dispatched by coroners or first responders to promptly address the needs of loved ones connected to a suicide death.

Facilitated by: Dr. Frank Campbell, PhD, LCSW, CT

Dr. Campbell is internationally recognized for his efforts in Suicide Prevention. He has served as the President of the American Association of Suicidology and was awarded Social Worker of the Year for the State of Louisiana. Dr. Campbell developed the LOSS Team model and his documentaries have aired throughout the world.
